

How to Break up Boredom!

Interactive Events for All Ages

Angie Smith and Aimee Newberry

McLean County Public Library

Planning Events

- Two methods of planning
 - Planning meetings
 - Form committees
 - Assign tasks
 - Follow-up meetings
 - Paperwork

Program Planning Form

Source for form:

Adult Programming: A Manual for
Libraries, 1997

- Include the following:
- Topic:
- Organizer:
- Audience
- Goals
- Date and Time of Program
- Person Responsible for Speaker
- Resources needed
- Costs
- Publicity

Our Way of Planning Events

- We need to do something for???
 - What sounds like fun?
 - Can we afford it?
 - Who can we solicit for donations?
 - Call the paper!
 - You get these things, I'll get these..
 - Did we forget anything?
 - Call the paper!
 - Man, that was FUN!

Always Have a Contingency Plan

- In the event of rain, always have an event that can be done inside.
- Smaller scale of outside event- use kids as game pieces, use craft foam as board spaces, etc..
- Board games

Googly Eyes

Quelf

